

Doggies go 2-3

'B' and 'C' teams beat Old Boys

by Patrick Gormans
and others

The Brockport Rugby Doggies took two of three games from the Buffalo Old Boys Saturday at Delaware Park in Buffalo.

The 'A' team's dogfight that again led to their defeat, a 16-0 spanking. Buffalo came out and quickly scored two try's and one conversion to take an early 10-0 lead.

Brockport came alive in the second half. They dominated field position and kept the Old Boys deep in their end.

Tom Shaw's hard hit on a Buffalo player and caused a fumble in which Mike Sanchez recovered for Brockport's new try. John Abney added the conversion to make the score 16-0.

Strong performances by "Big Red" Kelly and Eric Gaskill set up numerous Brockport opportunities, including two penalty kicks, all which failed.

A referee's time keeping error ended the game approximately 13 minutes early, adding to Brockport's dismay.

The 'A' record falls to 1-3.

The 'B' team posted its second consecutive shut out by whitewashing Buffalo 16-0.

The Doggies used their physical strength to control the game. Their ability to move the ball well around the wing led to the scoring.

Kenny Murphy scored two try's for Brockport, while Mike Thompson and Brian Tucker each scored one.

The 'B' record improves to 3-1. The 'C' team played its first game of the season and posted a 14-0 shut out.

John Schwartz, Darren "Red" Pech and Bob Kennedy all scored try's for Brockport. Ed Kowalski added one conversion.

The Doggies visit the Fingerlakes Vikings next week.