

Old Boys in Rugby Finals

Special to The News

SCHENECTADY — The Buffalo Old Boys advanced to today's final of the Upstate New York Rugby Union Championships by defeating the Syracuse Harlequins, 15-0, and the Rochester Colonials, 10-7.

The Old Boys' Jerry Wojcik scored two tries against Syracuse and one against Rochester.

The Old Boys 'B' team advanced to the championship by defeating the Rochester Colonials, 12-0, and the Schenectady Reds, 14-3/

□ □ □

The Albany Knickerbockers defeated the Buffalo Old Boys, 15-8, in the final of the Upstate New York Rugby Tournament in Schenectady. Ed Lawrence and Jerry Wojcik scored tries for Buffalo.

The Knickerbockers also won the Class B title, defeating Buffalo, 28-4. Dave Cidale scored the Old Boys' lone try.