

Red Ruggers Top Buffalo

The Cornell Rugby Club scored its second successive victory by overcoming the previously-unbeaten Buffalo Rugby Club 9-8 on Upper Alumni Field Saturday.

Tony Hodges once again had his kicking boots on and accounted for six of the Red's points. The other three came from a fine try by Brendan Hutchinson. The wet conditions made ball-handling difficult, but the forwards again excelled in loose play.

The club now has two away fixtures, against Rochester and Old Blue of New York, before closing the season with a home match against Union.
