

Boca Raton had advanced to the final four by defeating the Connecticut Yankees 19-14 and Buffalo 24-17 in the Sweet 16 at Newport, R.I. Team captain Paul Goodkin, 36, who was lured out of retirement to play this season, tried to convince his teammates that Riverside was not invincible.