

AROUND & ABOUT

By Staff

Published April 29, 1990

Rugby tourney set today

The Buffalo Old Boys A team will meet the Syracuse Chargers at 2:30 today, highlighting the four-game slate in the New York State Rugby Conference Tournament at Erie Community College South.

There also are three other games, all starting at 1 p.m. -- Buffalo Old Boys B against the Albany Knickerbockers; the University at Buffalo College A Division against Cortland; and Cortland vs. Oswego in the College B Division.

The Old Boys A won two games Saturday. Chuck Mosey's four-point try in overtime clinched a 10-6 win over Mid-Hudson while Jerry Wojcik had two tries in a 10-3 win over the Schenectady Reds. The Old Boys B also won twice, 10-4 over Genesee of Batavia, and 8-0 over the Syracuse Chargers.
