FOR THE OLD BOYS -- The Buffalo Old Boys Rugby Club is trying to contact former players and fans who would be interested in "reuniting with the club," according to Lex Maccubbin, president. He said the club will be holding its annual banquet Feb. 3 and that former players and fans "are encouraged to attend" to meet new club members and renew old friendships. For more information, call Maccubbin at 873-6453. . . .
