

AROUND & ABOUT

By Staff

Published May 17, 1992

Old Boys capture rugby 'B' game

CLEVELAND -- Paul Hankinson had three tries as the Buffalo Old Boys rugby club "B" team beat the Cleveland Cats, 25-0. Cleveland won the "A" game, 12-10, by scoring a try and a conversion in the final minute.

Hankinson had 12 points and Pat Giles had seven points (two conversions and a penalty kick) to lead the Buffalo B squad (10-2). Ron Astridge and Rob Sterling also had tries.

In the "A" game, Eric Anderson had a try and a conversion, while John Jablonski had the other try for Buffalo (5-4).