

Rugby Action

Playing in their fifth game of the season, the State University of Buffalo Rugby Club soundly defeated the Syracuse Rugby Club, 22-0. The victory was Buffalo's fourth win of the spring season.

Rugby club scores powerful victory over Syracuse team

In its fifth game of the spring season, the Buffalo Rugby Club took on and soundly defeated the Syracuse University Rugby Club, 22-0. The Buffalo "B" squad (second team) also was victorious, beating the Syracuse seconds, 11-0. The Buffalo spring record now stands at 4-1.

Buffalo was especially strong in the forwards against Syracuse, winning the lineouts and scrums with proficiency. Jim Crotty, leading the pack, and wing forward Skip Swisher had a fine day, with Swisher scoring one of the Buffalo tries.

The backs, led by stand-off Dave Lamb, showed the unity the club has long been looking for. Behind the kicking of Lamb and Center Andy Smith and prop Frank Dicce showed a great deal of aggressiveness in setting up the Buffalo attack.

In previous weeks, the Buffalo "A" squad was victorious over Ogdensburg, 22-8, Kitchener, 14-8 and the Toronto Barbarians 16-14. The "B" team has beaten Ogdensburg 9-0, Kitchener 8-5 and lost to Toronto, 20-11.

Buffalo has yet to meet its next opponents, Missasagua and Rochester. The squad has also been invited to the Cornell Invitational Tournament in May. Some 10-15 teams from New York State will be there. Buffalo at this time is expected to be a very strong contender for the

