Doggies bury Buffalo

by Claudia

"The doggies came to bury Buffalo old boys, and not peace them!" With a thoroughly infectious performance that captured signs of supreme confidence and confidence, the doggies displayed a collection that was loaded in good.

In no way does the score of 10-3 in a photo-athon reflect the doggie's superiority, which completely rebounded their... while an "under-dog" repelled the Buffalo... 10-3.

In this preliminary game in the open-air night tournament, the doggies mounted an aggressive and steady attack completely overpowered their opponent in the final, seven the... 10-3.

In the opening minutes the doggies exhibited their thinking will to win, by becoming the aggressors rather than allowing to be intimidated.

In every department of the game the doggies bunched the Buffalo walls, leaving their marks conspicuously imprinted everywhere. With virtual invincible energy they constantly demonstrated a courage that was unflinching.

Many before opened the scoring for Brockport with a deserved effect that was the immediate completion of some previous forward control. In the area of play, throughout the often brutal exchanges, every... Brockport forward emerged a hero.

In the second, all eight forwards played the drama, often displaying characteristics more akin to Lou Faurge, than his more human counterparts. They acted like him, providing enough ball for the backs to...
