

AROUND & ABOUT

By Staff Jul 1, 1990  0

New York City rugby team wins tourney

The Old Blue team of New York City scored 132 points in five matches and was unscored upon in winning the Buffalo Can-Am Sevens Rugby Tournament at Delaware Park.

The Old Blue team included five former Buffalo Old Boys players, including Carter Mann, who scored four tries in the final, a 28-0 Old Blue win over the Niagara Wasps of Port Colborne, Ont. Old Blue advances to the USA Rugby East Championships in August.

Twelve teams competed. The Old Boys were 2-1 in round-robin play and lost to Syracuse, which was eliminated by Old Blue in the semifinals.