

Cornell Ruggers Top Old Boys In Tourney

Special to The Buffalo News

SCHENECTADY — The Buffalo Old Boys Rugby team got off to a rousing start Saturday with a 20-8 victory over Binghamton in the opening round of the Upstate New York Rugby tournament here.

The team found tougher going in the second round however, losing to the Cornell University team, 12-0.

The Buffalo B team suffered a similar fate, losing its opener, 8-6, to Ithaca then dropping a consolation round match to the Rochester B team, 13-4.

Twenty five teams participated in the men's division of the tournament and six in the women's. Defending champion Syracuse Rogues are still alive going into today's semi-final round in Albany's Lincoln Park.
