

1990APR20URUFinalsBuffaloNews

British kicker paces
Chargers over Old Boys

Paul Payne, a British kicker, made six of seven penalty kicks (three beyond 45 yards) and added one conversion to account for 20 Syracuse points in the Chargers' 24-9 victory over the Buffalo Old Boys. It was in the Club A Division title game of the New York State Rugby Conference Tournament at Erie Community College South.

Tim Lucca had three penalty kicks from the 50-yard range to account for all of the Old Boys points.

The Old Boys B Club team defeated the Albany Knickerbockers, 11-6, to win their division title. Chris Mulhern and Bill Despres each scored a four-point try and Lex McCubbin added a two-point conversion for the Old Boys.

In the college division, Cortland won both titles, defeating the University at Buffalo, 10-0, in the B Division final as Gary Colcher took MVP honors, and also posted an 18-11 win over UB in the A Division final. Chris Metro had a try and a penalty kick for UB's A team.