Seven former Western New York athletes will appear on ESPN 2 today at 3 p.m. in the first-ever Harp USA Rugby Super League Championship.

The event, which was taped on May 10 in San Francisco, is a replay of a 22-8 victory by the the Gentlemen of Aspen (Colo.) over the New York Old Blue Rugby Club.

Among the Western New Yorkers who participated were Tim Lucca (Kenmore), Bill Nashwinter (Niagara Falls) and Charles de Rose (Buffalo) for Aspen. New York's roster includes locals Jim Waller, Dan Kennedy, Allen Donatelli and Richard Corrigan.

All seven were one-time members of the Buffalo Old Boys Rugby Club.
