

Old Boys Trail In Rugby

Special to the Courier-Express

ROCHESTER — Teams from the Old Boys Rugby Club collected a consolation title and a second place Saturday in the Upstate Rugby Club Championships at the University of Rochester.

The Old Boys swept two opponents in the "B" tourney before losing in the final. the "A" team lost its opener, then won two games to capture the consolation championship.

In "B," the Old Boys beat Syracuse, 12-3, as Tim Cochran, Ed Woods and Jim Hess scored tries, and Brockport, 14-0, behind tries by Tom Finn and Gus Keenan. But in the final, the Old Boys lost to the Albany Knickerbockers, 20-3.

The "A" club was beaten by Cornell, 9-4, with Joe Worobey netting a try, but rebounded to stop both the Schenectady Reds and the Syracuse Rogues by 12-0 scores.

Jerry Wojcik had two tries and Jim Dale one against the Reds while Ed Lawrence and Worobey each had a try versus Syracuse.

The Old Boys are at home (Delaware Park) Saturday at 1 p.m. against Hamilton, Ont.