

Buffalo bruises Aardvarks

The Buffalo Old Boys defeated the Rochester Aardvarks, 32-5, Saturday at the Aardvarks' home field in Henrietta.

"It was a thrashing, the first game," said Richard Berenson, public relations coordinator for the Rochester team.

The Aardvarks' B team did a little better, but still lost, 19-14, after the Buffalo team scored in the last two minutes.

"I'm just a little disappointed in the scores. Up to that, we'd been doing really well," Berenson, who plays on the B team, said.

Buffalo's A team scored on a lot of loose plays, he said, and "their kicking was flawless. They made just about all their conversions."

In the B game, Buffalo broke a 14-14 tie by scoring on a loose play on the wing. □
